Rev. Rufus Smith

“For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.” John 3:16 (NIV)

- Where were you born?
- Of all the experiences and emotions mentioned in the sermon that Jesus had, which stands out most to you and why?

Read John 3:16 – 18

- From these verses, what strikes you about God and what he wants to do?
- What is the most challenging part about the birth and humanity of Jesus to you?
- What is the most comforting part about the birth and humanity of Jesus to you?
- What are your New Year’s resolutions?
- How do you plan to grow in your faith in 2011?

“Do not be afraid, Mary, you have found favor with God. You will be with child and give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever; his kingdom will never end.”

Luke 1:30-33 (NIV)

Rather than sharing prayer requests in a discussion, try praying them together. Someone open in prayer and allow group members to pray randomly. Silence is okay. Praying more than once is okay. Have someone else close the prayer.
