The Lies We Believe: I Am What I Do

November 6-7, 2010

Dr. Eli Morris

"...My heart took delight in all my work, and this was the reward for all my labor. Yet when I surveyed all that my hands had done and what I had toiled to achieve, everything was meaningless, a chasing after the wind; nothing was gained under the sun."
Ecclesiastes 2:10 – 11 (NIV)

- What accomplishment or job or award have you been proud of yourself for achieving?
- How do you think someone would define you? By your job title, family, car you drive, etc?
- How do you think God defines you?

READ Ephesians 2:10

- How does it impact you to know that God has already prepared our work for us?
- So if God has already prepared what you will do, then how does that impact your definition of yourself?
- What good work do you feel God may have in mind for you?
- Would our definitions of ourselves impact positively or negatively those that are non-believers?
- What two things can you do this week to embrace the truth about your identity?

"For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do."
Ephesians 2:10 (NIV)

Rather than sharing prayer requests in a discussion, pray them together. Someone open in prayer and allow group members to pray randomly. Silence is okay. Praying more than once is okay. Have someone else close the prayer.
